DESCRIPTION: 2 people will enjoy 6 days/ 5 nights B&B at the lavishly restored Zanzibar Serena Beach Hotel (A member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World)—situated on Zanzibar's glorious seafront deep in the heart of legendary Stone Town—formerly two historic buildings: the early 19th century Extelcom Building and The Chinese Doctor's House (An old Arab house, possibly predating much of Stone Town itself!) Inclusive of airport transfer, ground transportation, and luxury accommodations in a standard room. One day excursion of Spice Tour and bustling, ancient Stone Town. One day at Mangapwani Beach (transfer and lunch provided). Package excludes international flights, personal insurance, gratuities, alcohol, and any meals/activities not mentioned .

There are no black out dates, however reservations are subject to availability. It is suggested bookings be made at least 90 days prior to travel. In response to the COVID-19 emergency, the expiry date is extended to two years. This will be adjusted if necessary.

- The organization agrees to pay a reserve price within 14 days post event (ONLY IF SOLD—there is no pre-payment nor obligation if it does not sell.) Any proceeds above the reserve price go to the organization/foundation. .
- The organization agrees to provide Auction Shake Up with name, phone and email address of the successful bidder(s) within 72 hours after the close of the event. An invoice will be provided post-event for tax and accounting purposes.. This invoice number becomes the tracking number for the winners, post event to validate their certificate and use in booking communications. No travel dates can be confirmed until the reserve monies have been received.
- A certificate, winner packet, event brochure and slide show shall be provided for use in marketing the package. The winner must be given the provided certificate/winner packet which includes the detailed itinerary as well as instructions on how to proceed with the booking process.
- If the committee, board, or auctioneer have questions not answered in the materials, Beth can be available individually at any time on the cell or via speaker phone to the group. (For group calls, please give 24+ hours notice If possible.)
- We must be contacted prior to featuring the trip so appropriate certificate and materials can be provided. Please provide how you would like the event information on the materials to read. (i.e. Name of Event, Benefiting Name of Foundation, and Date.) Packages are non-transferable, nonrefundable and expire two years from the date of the event or raffle.
